Sex discrimination prohibited by Title IX includes sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual violence, and sexual misconduct. ### Reporting Policies and Protocols

Princess Beauty School strongly encourages all members of the school community to report information about any incident of sexual misconduct as soon as possible, whether the incident occurred on or off campus. Report can be made either to the school and/or to law enforcement.

Reporting to the institution

An incident of sexual misconduct may be reported directly to the campus Title IX Coordinator. If the campus Title IX Coordinator is the alleged perpetrator of the sexual misconduct, the report should be submitted to the School Director/Owner. Physical evidence is crucial for the successful prosecution of all sex offenders and therefore should be preserved for proof of a criminal offense. An individual who has experienced an incident of sexual misconduct may report the incident at any time, regardless of how much time has elapsed since the incident occurred. Princess Beauty School is committed to supporting the rights of a person reporting an incident of sexual misconduct to make an informed choice among options available. ### Reporting to Law Enforcement-Continued

Assist the complainant in contacting law enforcement. If the complainant decides to pursue the criminal process, the school will cooperate with law enforcement agencies to the extent permitted by law. A complainant has the option to decide whether or not to participate in any investigation conducted by law enforcement. Filing a police report will:

- Ensure that a victim of sexual assault receives the necessary medical treatment and tests
- Provide the opportunity for collection of evidence helpful in prosecution, which cannot be obtained later (ideally a victim of sexual assault should not wash, douche, use the toilet, or change clothing prior to a medical/legal exam)
- Assure the victim has a referral to confidential counseling from counselors specifically trained in the area of sexual assault.

Princess Beauty School does not have professionally trained on-campus counseling to sex offense victims.

Evidence Preservation

Victim of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking should consider seeking medical attention as soon as possible. It is important that a victim of sexual assault should avoid using the toilet, washing, changing clothes, etc. prior to a medical/legal so that evidence necessary to prove criminal activity may be preserved.

Sex Crime Prevention

Princess Beauty School prohibits the offenses of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

- Domestic Violence - Is defined as a Felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed:
  - By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
  - By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
  - By a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
  - By a similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred;
  - By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

- Dating Violence - Is defined as violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim.
The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
For the purpose of this definition-
  - Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.
  - Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

Sex Crime Prevention - Continued

- Stalking – Is defined as engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable to -

- Fear for the person’s safety or the safety of others; or
- Suffer substantial emotional distress.

For the purposes of this definition –

- Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person’s property.
- Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.
- Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

Sexual activity requires consent, which is defined as voluntary, positive agreement between the participants to engage in specific sexual activity. Communicating consent:

- Consent to sexual activity can be communicated in a variety of ways, but one should presume that consent has not been given in the absence of clear, positive agreement.

• While verbal consent is not an absolute requirement for consensual sexual activity, verbal communication prior to engaging in sex helps to clarify consent. Communicating verbally before engaging in sexual activity is imperative. However potentially awkward it may seem talking about your own and your partner’s sexual desires, needs, and limitations provide a basis for a positive experience.

• Consent must be clear and unambiguous for each participant at every stage of a sexual encounter. The absence of “no” should not be understood to mean there is consent.

• A prior relationship does not indicate consent to future activity. Warning signs of abusive behavior include threats of violence, jealousy, and controlling behavior. Potential attacks can be avoided by avoiding unsafe situations.

The following are safety tips that can be used to avoid unsafe situations:

- Be aware of your surroundings and what is going on around you
- Avoid being alone with someone you do not trust or know well
- Make sure your cell phone is with you and charged
- Report suspicious individuals to security
- Avoid dangerous situations
- Always lock your vehicle and secure your valuables
- Have your keys in your hand before you reach your vehicle

- . Do not let others get drinks for you. Always know what is in your drink. Never leave your drink unattended
- . If you believe you are being followed, do not drive home. Stay on busy streets and drive to the police department
- . In case of an emergency – Dial 911. The institution encourages all members of the community to take safe and positive actions to intervene when there is a risk of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

There is no single “right” way to intervene, and what is appropriate depends on the situation and the individuals involved. Available intervention strategies can include but are not limited to:

- . Asking the School Director to separate the individuals involved in a non-combative matter if the issue is on campus
- . Asking the individuals involved to stop what they are doing
- . Use a distraction in an effort to stop an individual’s activities
- . Stepping in and separating the people involved in a non-combative manner only if it is safe to do so
- . Notify law enforcement by calling 911
- . The institution maintains confidentiality with victims in accordance with applicable professional standards.

It is the policy of the institution to protect the confidentiality of victims to the extent that it is reasonably practicable. Specifically, the identity of the victim and information relating to the situation will be provided only to those individuals who have a legitimate need to know, or as reasonably necessary for the purpose of investigating or resolving the situation. The institution will not utilize identifying information about the victim in records about the situation any more than is reasonably necessary, and the institution will redact the victim’s identifying information before disclosing such records publicly to the extent permissible by law.
